

Content Policy Advisement: The purpose of this social media site is for the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office to share news and information regarding the activities, policies and programs of the office and its employees. We encourage discussion and comments on posts. Your insights are important. However, please be aware that this site is designed and maintained to provide a limited public forum where content is subject to reasonable regulation.

Public Comment and Reports Advisement: Please DO NOT use this site to report criminal activity. If you have an emergency and need immediate assistance, dial 911. If you need to report a crime, please contact local law enforcement to make a report. The Montgomery County District Attorney's Office will review all comments after posting. The Montgomery County District Attorney's Office reserves the right to remove and/or otherwise restrict comments, or even the ability to post comments in the future, based on content containing any of the following:

- Comments unrelated to the purpose and topical scope of the social media site.
- Obscenity, pornography or otherwise sexually explicit in nature.
- Promotion of illegal activity, including but not limited to, solicitations to commit criminal conduct, or incitement to imminent lawless action.
- Speech presenting a grave and imminent threat, abusive, or fighting words.
- Fraudulent claims or defamatory comments (e.g. libel or slander).
- Promotion or advertisement of a business or commercial transaction.
- Promotion in favor of, or in opposition to, a candidate campaigning for election to a political office.
- Copyrighted or trademarked material (if posted without the intellectual property right holder's consent).
- Comments or posts that violate the host site's terms of service and/or community standards rules.
- Comments or posts that tend to divulge personal identifying information of any person.
- Comments or posts that reveal information related to an open or pending investigation or case.

The Montgomery County District Attorney's Office recognizes that social media tools are available 24 hours a day and we welcome comments at any time. However, given the need to manage resources, the moderation of comments will ordinarily occur during regular business hours.

Privacy Advisement: To protect your personal privacy and the privacy of other persons, the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office recommends that people do not include personal identifying information, such as full name, date of birth, Social Security number, phone numbers, addresses, or e-mail addresses in the body of their comments. If comments include personal identifying information, it may be removed.

Note: Neither the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office, nor any of its members, will ask for your personal information via any social networking site.

Endorsement Advisement: Any references to commercial entities, products, services, or other non-governmental organizations or individuals that remain on this site are provided solely for informational purposes, or provided by the web hosting service. Such references are not an official or personal endorsement by the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office of any product, person, or service.

Contact & Privacy Advisement: Members of the public should be aware that information shared through this site may be subject to release through the Texas Public Information Act (Chapter 552 of the Texas Government Code). Please note that communications made through social media channels, will not constitute legal or official service, notice, or comment to the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office or any official or employee. While it is necessary for the Montgomery County District Attorney's Office to impose reasonable restrictions in regulating a limited public forum, it does not mean that we do not want to hear from members of the public. The Montgomery County District Attorney's Office encourages feedback, whether commendations or criticism, and we want to hear your ideas and opinions. You can contact us at 936-539-7800 or at dainfo@mctx.org.
